Jerusalem Choral Fantasy

A festival of vocal music, showcasing some of the best Israeli choirs and ensembles, opens in Jerusalem on Thursday. The celebratory opening concert, conducted by Barak Tal (Thur at 20.30), features the Tel Aviv Soloists and the Collegium Singers, joined by soprano Keren Hadar and Alon Reuven (French horn). On the program are Yehezkel Braun's "The people walking in darkness have seen a great light" for soprano, horn and strings; choral works by Mozart and Mendelssohn; Haydn's Mass No. 3; and Mendelssohn's String Symphony No. 1. November 1-3, Jerusalem YMCA (02) 569-2693. For the full program: www.ymca-fantasy.com
